Jan 26 At the MacK- Mobile Structures Opening

Mobile Structures Opening

The MacKenzie Art Gallery is opening an exciting new exhibition on January 26, 2007 beginning at 7:30 p.m. and you are invited to the party!

Mobile Structures: Dialogues Between Ceramics and Architecture in Canadian Art features work by Regina artists Jeannie Mah, Rory MacDonald and Ruth Chambers, plus six others from across Canada. The work in the exhibition represents the best of the 'next generation' of ceramic art. You will need to see it to believe it! It will transform our gallery spaces and is not to be missed.

To offer visitors the opportunity to learn and talk about the work in the exhibition, the MacKenzie is also presenting the Mobile Structures Symposium on Saturday, January 27, 2007, beginning at 1:30 p.m. We will kick off the day with a talk by Amy Gogarty, Independent Artist, Writer and Researcher from Vancouver. A panel discussion featuring Mobile Structures artists will follow at 3 p.m.

Mobile Structures artists are: Ruth Chambers, Neil Forrest, Jeremy Hatch, Rory MacDonald, Jeannie Mah, Alwyn O'Brien, Gilbert Poissant, Christian Bernard Singer and Linda Sormin.

This exhibition is organized by the MacKenzie Art Gallery with the support of the Canada Council for the Arts, the Saskatchewan Arts Board and the City of Regina Arts Commission.

Admission to the exhibition and programs are free and everyone is welcome to attend.
