Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery Receives Rainbow Registered Accreditation!

WATERLOO (ONTARIO) CANADA, June 14, 2022:

The Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery is excited to announce the receipt of accreditation through the Rainbow Registered program, administered by the Canadian Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce. As we celebrate Pride Month, this is a perfect occasion to recognize the work that we do to welcome, engage, and represent the LGBTQ2S+ community locally, and as a national art gallery. Recognizing Canadian businesses and non-profits for their commitment to providing a safe and welcoming space for LGBTQ2S+ visitors, staff, and volunteers, the Rainbow Registered program provides a way for LGBTQ2S+ individuals to find businesses and spaces in their communities.

“We are pleased to receive the Rainbow Registered accreditation and recognize that it not only designates us as a safe and welcoming place for the LGBTQ2S+ community, but will also help us as we continue to work towards engaging diverse community groups. We are excited to use this accreditation and build on it as we strengthen our community engagements and foster an open and welcoming space for all.”
Denis Longchamps, Executive Director & Chief Curator
