

Job posting: Ceramic Studio Technician
Temporary on call
$21/hour

The Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery, Waterloo, Ontario, is looking for a skilled Ceramic Studio Technician. The ideal candidate should be proactive and work well as part of team to run smooth and safe operations in the studio.

Studio Technician responsibilities

- Safely operate clay kilns, glass fusion kiln, and pug mill mixer
- Fire, glaze, and pack artwork and email people when work is ready for pick-up
- Help maintain a clean and safe studio environment
- Notify Public Programs Manager when supplies are running low
- Complete other tasks as required for smooth operation of studio and programs
- Will also have opportunities to run clay programs and demonstration
- May also lead school group and workshop activities

Requirements

- A ceramic degree from a recognized institution, or equivalent
- Vulnerable Sector Police Check will be required for the successful candidate
- Strong communication skills and works well as part of a team
- Experience working in a clay or glass studio
- Formal ceramics training an asset

To apply, send in one PDF document the following:

Cover letter

Curriculum vitae or resume

To Denis Longchamps, Executive Director, at director@theclayandglass.ca

Please note that only the candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
The successful candidate will be required to provide a recent and valid police background check.

The Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery invites and encourages applications from all qualified individuals, including from groups that are traditionally underrepresented in employment.

The Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery is an equal opportunity employer committed to inclusive, barrier-free recruitment. The gallery is wheelchair accessible. Accommodations are available for all parts of the recruitment process. Applicants need to make their needs known in advance.
The Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery is a long-standing site of excellence and a destination for contemporary ceramic, glass and vitreous enamel arts.