Meet & Greet at the CC&GG on December 7 Executive Director Gives Talk on Curating Canadian Art

WATERLOO (ONTARIO) CANADA, November 25, 2025 – The Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery is delighted to invite the community to a special Meet & Greet event with Dr. Sarah Stanners, the Gallery's newly appointed Executive Director & Chief Curator, on Sunday, December 7, 2025, from 1:00pm to 2:30pm. This free public event offers an opportunity to welcome Dr. Stanners to Waterloo Region and to learn more about her vision for the Gallery's future.

"I want to connect with the community and talk about what I love the most: celebrating Canadian art!" remarks Dr. Stanners, who has been curating exhibitions focused on the art of Canada since 2003. In a featured presentation, she will guide attendees through key moments in her curatorial career, sharing images and stories that have shaped her work and led her to this exciting new chapter at the CCGG.

The event will be both casual and engaging—an ideal icebreaker before winter fully settles in. Guests will also receive a 10% discount on all items in the Gallery Gift Shop on the day of the event by showing their registration confirmation. To register for the event, please visit this link: Meet & Greet with Dr. Sarah Stanners. Spots are limited, so pre-registration is encouraged.

Although admission is free, attendees may opt to register for a donation ticket to support the Gallery's exhibitions, programs, and community initiatives. The CCGG extends its sincere thanks for any contributions offered.

ABOUT THE GALLERY

The Canadian Clay & Glass Gallery is a long-standing site of excellence and a destination for contemporary art for international tourists and regional citizens. We present critically acclaimed exhibitions that challenge ideas and perceptions of the definitions of art, craft, and design today. The Gallery is a relevant and dynamic cultural organization providing supportive education programs to people from across the region. Using exhibitions as a starting point, individuals develop arts vocabulary and appreciation and cultivate confidence in their interpretation of contemporary artworks.
